

2026 WEDDING GUIDE

A Little About Me

Hello, I'm Alix, an experienced wedding and event florist, based in the North East of England, creating beautiful wedding flowers inspired by nature. I love working with seasonal blooms, lush greenery, and natural textures to craft designs that feel unashamedly wild, beautifully free, and effortlessly elegant. Whether you're dreaming of a small, intimate gathering or a grand, spectacular celebration, your flowers will be completely personal to you. I keep everything simple and transparent with no jargon, no hidden fees, and absolutely no cookie-cutter arrangements. I listen, collaborate, and encourage you to be unapologetically yourself, embracing your unique style without feeling pressured to follow fleeting trends.

Let's Get Started

I like to keep things super simple. Have a look through my website and social media to see if my style speaks to you. It should feel like a perfect match, just like your favourite playlist or dream venue. If it feels right, drop me a message using the online enquiry form with your date, venue, guest numbers, and any early ideas you have. Once I've got your details, we'll arrange a relaxed chat either in person or over the phone to start bringing your floral vision to life.

Planning & Appointments

Once we've had our first relaxed chat and you're feeling excited to move forward, I'll create a draft plan with all the lovely details and costs clearly laid out. If you decide to go ahead, I simply ask for a small booking fee to secure your date in our diary. This fee is non-refundable but will be deducted from your final bill.

With your date secured, we'll set up a second consultation where we can fine-tune all the little details. From flower choices and colour palettes to delivery timings and set-up logistics, I'll make sure everything is beautifully organised and stress-free.

To help with your budgeting and planning, I require 50% of your final amount to be paid 6 months before your wedding date. The remaining 50% will be due 1 month before your big day.
